Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claims 1-2,4,6-7,9,11-14 , the terms " general formula" is recited. This expression is vague and indefinite because the specification does not elaborate what is meant by the term " general formula".

Regarding claim 15, the phrase "such as" renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitations following the phrase are part of the claimed invention. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

A broad range or limitation together with a narrow range or limitation that falls within the broad range or limitation (in the same claim) is considered indefinite, since the resulting claim does not clearly set forth the metes and bounds of the patent protection desired. See MPEP § 2173.05(c). Note the explanation given by the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences in Ex parte Wu, 10 USPQ2d 2031, 2033 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1989), as to where broad language is followed by "such as" and then narrow language. The Board stated that this can render a claim indefinite by raising a question or doubt as to whether the feature introduced by such language is (a) merely exemplary of the remainder of the claim, and therefore not required, or (b) a required feature of the claims. Note also, for example, the decisions of Ex parte Steigewald, 131 USPQ 74 (Bd. App. 1961); Ex parte Hall, 83 USPQ 38 (Bd. App. 1948); and Ex parte Hasche, 86 USPQ 481 (Bd. App. 1949). In the present instance, claim 10 recites the broad recitation of " -20~20⁰ C ", and the claim also recites " -20~0⁰ C " which is the narrower statement of the range/limitation. The examiner recommends to add the narrowed claim to the dependent claim.

Claim 18 provides for the use of the compound, but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

Claim 18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed recitation of a use, without setting forth any steps involved in the process, results in an improper definition of a process, i.e., results in a claim which is not a proper process claim under 35 U.S.C. 101. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153 USPQ 678 (Bd.App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966).

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 17-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

In the claims 17-18, the terms "preventing --- urinary incontinence" or "preventing --- pain disease or inflammatory disease" is recited. However, the specification does not describe how to prevent urinary incontinence, pain disease or inflammatory disease. Also, there are no showings of any evidence for preventing urinary incontinence , pain disease or inflammatory disease at the same time by using the claimed compound. This description is essential to the claimed invention because it allows to distinguish identifying characteristics sufficient show that the applicant was in possession of the claimed invention, and the claim ,as a whole, may not be adequately described where the invention is described solely in terms of a process of its conversion coupled with its function and there is no described or art-recognized correlation or relationship between the structure of the invention and its functional language. Furthermore, the contemporary knowledge of the art does not teach " how to prevent " for all the above diseases. If we could prevent all the possible permutations and combinations of the above, nobody would be sick. In addition, more than routine experimentation is involved. See In re Armbruster 185 USPQ 204 (CCPA 1985) and Angstadt et al. , 190 USPQ 152 (CCPA 1990). Therefore, the specification has failed to support enablement for the method for preventing urinary incontinence , pain disease or inflammatory disease. Therefore, an appropriate correction is required.
